REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

---

There have been two terms of school in each Division the past year.

The first term of 12 weeks in Division 1, was taught by Mrs. Mae A. Jacobs, of this town. This was Mrs. Jacobs' fourth term in this school; very good progress was made by the scholars.

The second term of 7 weeks, was taught by Ruth R. Slayton, of Dorchester, Mass. This was Miss Slayton's first attempt at teaching; the number of scholars was small, but they made fair progress in their studies.

In Division 2, there has been 19 weeks of school, taught by Miss Vina A. Dole, of Washington, N. H. Miss Dole has had a long experience, teaching in this and other states; she is a teacher that is liked by all scholars and they made good progress in their studies. We hope she may be spared for this work a good many years yet.

By an oversight of the School Board, no article was put in the town warrant to raise extra money for schools, so there have not been quite as many weeks of school as we would have liked.

MELVIN TEMPLE.

School Board of Windsor.
